

Hull Museum Education

The Fish Market - Drama Activity

You should now have a good understanding of the painting. Use your findings to help you develop a short script with the children –no more than four minutes.

Use the Each group will have five minutes at the end of the session to perform their story to the rest of the class.

Group 1

Your scene is: The fishmonger's stall

Your characters are: Foreground fish seller and customers

Group 2

Your scene is: Unloading fish at river bank

Your characters are: Fishermen

Group 3

Your scene is: Preparing for a feast

Your characters are: Group of men and women carrying goods

Group 4

Your scene is: The view from the window

Your characters are: Two women with veils, people inside the building

Hull Museum Education

Plan your Performance

Where is your scene?
What is happening in your scene?
How many people are in your scene?
Who are the people?
What do they do – are they rich or poor?
Where are the people in relation to each other.
What are they saying to each other?

Staff use this space to help you plan your performance.

Hull Museum Education

