

Zine Activity

Zines are a personal interpretation of the material where individuals select words, phrases, images in whole or in part i.e. sections of the documents and present their choices in a creative way.

Below are examples of zines made by a student using Kushia Bag's story and archive documents for inspiration. With further research, students can add other creative touches that speak to his story, and their response to it.

